Climate Friendly

Scribble in a Silvine, safe in the knowledge you're using sustainable stationery!

Paper stationery is lovable stuff. But, as you sit down to write on your Silvine notebook's first pristine page, the last thing you want is the thought of swathes of rainforest trees being decimated for this moment of pleasure. So here are a few things we thought you should know about Silvine, so you can put your pen to paper without so much as a flicker of guilt:

- 100% of our product materials are from well managed sources, including FSC[®] (Forest Stewardship Council) certified papers.
- We ensure our paper comes from sources where workers' civil rights are not violated.
- We do not buy paper made from genetically modified trees.
- We do not buy paper made from illegally harvested wood whether from natural forests, or from forests which have been cleared to make way for plantations or other non-forest enterprises.

Paper fact file

- 74% of paper and 83% of paper-based packaging in Europe is recycled into new products (source: CEPI, 2020 + Eurostat, 2018)
- It's estimated that, in Europe alone, forests are increasing annually by an area equivalent to more than 1.5 million football pitches (source: lovepaper.org)
- Over the past 40 years, the worlds forests have moderated global warming by absorbing around 1/4 of the carbon dioxide emitted by human activities (source: lovepaper.org, The Soil Association, Sustainable Packaging Report: The case for paper, 2020
- The majority of trees cut down in the tropics are cleared to make way for agriculture or provide domestic fuel, not to make paper
- Paper fibres can be recycled up to six times
- Paper is truly sustainable, with waste fully recoverable ready for recycling into new paper

We've invested heavily in solar panels across our entire facility and in 2022 - we went from producing 420,000 kw of clean electricity to 695,000 kw – increasing our generation of clean power by around 50% - what we can't use, we export to the national grid.

These books have laminated covers to help protect the books against wear and tear in the classroom. The stronger covers are more durable when sheets are stuck into the book and more resistant to any spills when used for science, cookery, field trips and homework. The type of lamination also ensures you can still write on the cover.

All our Tough Shell exercise books are filled with 80 pages of quality fountain pen friendly educational grade 75gsm paper.
